WILLIAM C. EDEL

William Edel is being honored for 25 years of service to Potomac State College.

Bill is an associate professor of economics, distance learning coordinator, and faculty sponsor of the College Republican Club and Students in Free Enterprise.

Born in Philadelphia, Bill graduated from Glen Allen High School near Richmond, Va. He earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Randolph-Macon College in Ashland, Va. and a master's degree in economics from the University of Virginia in Charlottesville in 1954. He was awarded a master's degree in speech communication from WVU in 1982.

Before his career in academics, Bill held positions as counselor, swimming instructor, and swim team coach for the YMCA and a neighborhood civic association.

He worked to catalog the papers of Sen. Carter Glass (Va.) for the Brookings Institution. He was also a statistician with the Commonwealth of Virginia Tax Department.

His first position in higher education was at Clemson College (now University) as an assistant professor of industrial management. At Clemson, he was assistant tennis coach and the first women's basketball head coach. He also played half-court basketball with young "Pistol Pete" Maravich, whose father was basketball coach at Clemson.

Bill was appointed assistant professor of business and economics at Davis and Elkins College following the Clemson years.

At Potomac State this year, Bill is pleased to have brought U.S. Rep. Newt Gingrich's television class Renewing American Civilization to our campus. He is especially proud of SIFE's representing the college in regional economic competition.

Bill is an administrative board member of the Grace United Methodist Church and gives devotionals for the Disciples Class on Sunday mornings.

He is married to Myra Jean Musser Edel (from Clemson, S.C.). They have one daughter, Frances Jean Edel; grandson, Richard Morris Easter; and son-in-law Alan Easter, Glen Head (Long Island), N.Y.

LINDA S. LANCASTER

Linda Lancaster is being honored for 25 years of service to Potomac State College.

The System calls Linda Program Assistant II, but staff, faculty, and administrators know Linda as organizer, computer software whiz, historian, and friend.

Born in Keyser and raised in Elk Garden, Linda attended Cross Elementary School and Elk Garden High School, from which she graduated valedictorian, with awards in English and commercial studies.

She attended Potomac State College from 1966-68, earning an A.A. degree in executive secretarial studies.

Before her employment at Potomac State, Linda served as secretary-bookkeeper for the Reese's-Hackley Stores.

Linda's family members include parents Mr. and Mrs. John K. Lancaster, Mount Storm; brothers and sisters Sandra Miller, Marion Droppleman, Kenneth Lancaster, Janet Simmons, and James Lancaster.

She has three nephews: Matt Simmons, Michael Droppleman, and John Miller; six nieces: Cheryl Runyon, Stephanie Droppleman, Marcia Miller, Barbara Lancaster, Mistie Lancaster, Kandace Lancaster; and one grandnephew: Aaron Douglas Runyon.

Linda is a member of the Cross United Methodist Church and the Abraham Lincoln VFW Auxiliary in Mount Storm.

During her 25 years of service, Linda has served on more committees, councils, ad hoc committees, and task forces than she cares to remember. She currently serves on the Commencement Council, TQM Project on Staff Development, and the Nominations and Elections Committee for the PSC Classified Employees Council.

JEFF R. MILLER

Jeff Miller is being honored for 25 years of service to Potomac State College as the college electrician.

Jeff was born in Middletown, Ohio. He spent most of his childhood years in Spencer, W.Va. until his family moved to Keyser.

He is a graduate of Keyser High School. After graduation, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy. He served in the Navy from 1966-69.

Jeff began his employment with Potomac State after returning from military service in 1969. He has been employed in his present position since that time.

Jeff resides in Fountain with his wife Linda. In his spare time he enjoys target shooting.
